

Dale McMillan – Congratulations!

A Virtual Quilt Show Winner!

From April 27-May 3 there was a Virtual Quilt Show (VQS). 228 quilts were submitted to the show in 18 categories. The VQS included workshops and vendors.

The judges were: Stevii Graves (former IQA president), Ricky Tims, and Pat Harrison.

Our very own Dale McMillan submitted three quilts. Her 'Blue Heron Boogie', a memorial quilt for her daughter Naarah, won 1st place, for the 'Best Use of Embroidery'.

Dale discovered the VQS through a Facebook quilting group. Dale had the write-ups ready to go for our postponed quilt show. So, the biggest task was photographing each quilt - there were 6 shots for each entry. Hovering with your finger, or the mouse, allowed a magnified view of every inch of the picture. Every exquisite detail and glaring flaw!

Dale entered this international competition without having to relinquish her quilts or pay the cost of shipping. Dale felt it was a low risk, legitimate competition since she knew that Ricky Tims was one of the judges.

This is a snapshot of the May 1st, Virtual Quilts Awards Ceremony.

The Awards Ceremony is online. The first couple of minutes of the show provides background. If you scroll to 17 minutes and 10 seconds into the show, you will see the award presentation to Dale. Way to go Dale!
