

Pine Tree Quilters Guild of Muskoka—Modern Group—January 6, 2022 Meeting

A chat time prior to the meeting was enjoyed by 19 members.

Welcome to the January 6, 2022 meeting was presented by Wendy W. Thank you to Shelia H. for her ZOOM expertise.

QUILTING TRENDS FOR 2022 Presented by Wendy W.

- Patchwork fashion
- Sustainable/recycle sewing
- English Paper Piecing and Foundation Paper Piecing
- Quilt panels
- Improv
- Two tone quilts
- Slow stitching/large/ boro stitching Mary mentioned Anne-Lise Ryan. Anne-Lise Ryan.
Youtube: <https://www.youtube.com/c/AnneLiseRyan1964>
www.facebook.com/SnazzieCreations.
- Funky texture and embellishing
- Political quilts
- Quilting for a change/cause
- Quilts incorporating writing to express a change/cause

Wendy W. encouraged members to clean their sewing machines and check their sewing gear.

Carol C. confirmed her “INTERLEAVE” quilt workshop will be on January 27/22. Enrolled members should have received a supply list. The workshop will be recorded so will be available for members not able to attend January 27 at the registration fee price. A great opportunity to learn a new technique, and support our guild.

Lynda G. volunteered to contact Pharmasave to see if there is a QuiltCon 2022 magazine. If there is members interested in ordering it should contact Lynda by January 10.

Halina spoke of quilt magazines being available at your local library. <https://odmc.overdrive.com/odmc-huntsville/content> Just remember that checking out quilting magazines is called RESEARCH.

Mary R. shared that her Husqvarna sewing machine is in for service at “ALL ABOUT SEWING” <https://www.allaboutsewingmachines.ca> Mary commented that Lloyd services all brands of sewing machines.

FEATURED QUILTERS.

Mary M. presented the “Feature Quilters” for this month. Her choices were: Carolina Oneto and Hillary Goodwin.

CAROLINA ONETO: <https://carolinaoneto.com>

<https://www.pinterest.com>

<https://www.facebook.com/carolinaonetoquilts/>

Instagram: @carolina_oneto.com

Mary let us know that Carolina has a lecture and two workshops in March 2022 with the York Heritage Quilters Guild. <https://yhqg.org/speakers-and-workshops> Carolina was also interviewed by Jenni Smith of Quilt folk <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=I=KmTzqEQM4>

Mary commented that Carolina made modern, colourful and inspirational quilts.

HILLARY GOODWIN: <https://entrophyalwayswinsblog.com>

Instagram: @entrophyalwayswins

<https://thehenryford.org>artifact>

<https://lookinside.kaiserpermanente.org/a-statement-in-fabric>

<https://portlandmodernquiltguild.com/blog/2021/3/nude-is-not-a-color>

Knits, sews her clothes, quilts and saves people's lives.

SHOW AND SHARE

Mary R: "Snow Flake Kisses Quilt" A weekly mystery quilt presented by Thimble and Things <https://thimbleandthings.com> Quilted by Sue Bogers and gifted to Mary's friend for Christmas.

Halina Fiona's "Quiet Book" A book full of activities to entertain a young person. A birthday gift for Halina's youngest granddaughter.

Sandi: 1. "Ray Quilt" A Carolyn Friedlander quilt pattern. Quilted by Sandi including hand stitching (big stitch)

2. "Blooming Wallflower Quilt" Pattern by Christa Watson. Sandi repurposed this quilt into a jacket. Sandi commented that it was an improvised Tamarack style jacket.

Hanne: Quilt pattern is "Science Fair" A Jaybird quilt pattern. Quilted by Hanne.

Wendy W: Wendy purchased a Christmas fabric Charm Pak from Country Concessions. It has been made into 16 mug rugs and a table runner. All of which will be Christmas gifts for next Christmas. Wendy noted that Country Concessions has moved to a new location: 35 King Street North, Cookstown. <https://www.countryconcessions.com>

Margaret: Margaret shared that she had gifted her husband Kirk a Singer sewing machine so he could sew new covers for their boat cushions. Kirk was hugely successful!

Next meeting: February 3/22

Sheila is Presenter and Margaret is Secretary